NOMINATIONS FOR FORESTVILLE BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB'S MAN, WOMAN, BOY AND GIRL OF THE YEAR AWARD Sponsored by the Prince Georges County Boys & Girls Club

This annual award ceremony sponsored by the Prince Georges County Boys & Girls Club recognizes members from each Club (boy, girl, man, and woman) for their outstanding contributions to family, school, community and the Forestville Boys & Girls Club, as well as academic excellence, if applicable and personal obstacles overcome. This award recognizes members who have made exceptional strides personally and within their community. It is one of the most prestigious honors a member can receive. The recipients will be honored at an awards dinner on March 13, 2011.

Criteria for Selection:

- Member in good standing with the Prince George's Boys and Girls Club (i.e. boys or girls who only participate in the tackle football program (Capital Beltway League) are ineligible)
- Member of the Forestville Boys and Girls Club (FBGC)
- Active participation in fund raiser activities for the Club and/or individual sports programs and/or various Club-sponsored activities (Registration, Homecoming, Concession, etc.)
- Participation in various volunteer community-based and school activities
- Exemplary FBGC sport(s) program participation displayed by:
 - good attendance
 - commendable effort during practices
 - sportsmanship
 - leadership
 - cooperation
 - respect for authority

Nominations for candidates may be submitted by any member (parent, coach, officer) of the FBGC. Please complete the enclosed nomination form and submit it to Patricia Hall at phall_2@yahoo.com by February 17, 2011. Selectees will be notified by March 1, 2011.
